DecisionEd's Performance Management Solution Selected by Round Rock ISD for Data Management, Analytics and Reporting

COPPELL, Texas, June 22, 2016 -- DecisionEd announced that it has been selected by Round Rock Independent School District to provide data management, analytics and reports; delivering performance management solutions.

"DecisionEd is pleased to announce teaming with Round Rock ISD to provide analytics throughout the district," said DecisionEd Chief Architect, Mark Mason. "DecisionEd provides best in class analytics incorporating Texas specific data, and we look forward to our partnership with Round Rock and the impact to their educational processes."

DecisionEd's solution is based on quantitative decision tools long used by business, tailored to the unique needs of education. By combining disparate databases, the solution helps K-12 school districts consolidate information critical to meeting their goals. DecisionEd's complete, easy-to-understand accounting of critical metrics enables schools to make more informed decisions, leading to improved student success and graduation rates.

Round Rock ISD serves more than 47,000 students in five high schools, ten middle schools, 33 elementary schools and four alternative learning centers. Located in southern Williamson county and northwest Travis county, and including the city of Round Rock and portions of Austin and Cedar Park, the district has a diverse student population. Round Rock ISD prepares each student to contribute to society, continue to learn, and confidently embrace the challenges of a competitive and every changing world.
